Hi all FYI.

I was actually thinking about this last night and was just curious. Most of these items were above the icp but I was wondering if we had shared the adit sampling results yet.

Hope you guys are doing well. I'm fully wrapped back into the routine stuff and though it's nice to be home I miss working with you guys.

I saw from the sitrep that the icp is pretty much demobed and Steve and his crew have done a great job getting the treatment system on line.

Best

Mike
